

If you're enjoying the Inside/Out exhibit in Douglas and would like to learn more about the artists and styles represented, here are some suggestions for titles you can either find on the shelves at the Saugatuck-Douglas District Library or borrow instantly as eBooks using Hoopla.

You can also use the online catalog on our website to look for books available at other libraries that you may borrow through inter-library loan. Useful search terms might be, for example, Impressionists, Post-Impressionists, or the individual artists' names.
